Notwithstanding the above, Landlord does not waive or release Tenant from the following: (i) any obligations arising under this Termination Agreement; (ii) covenants and obligations of the Tenant, including the payment of all rent and related lease charges as and when they come due under the Lease, from the date of this Agreement through the Termination Date; (iii) any Lease obligations that expressly survive the Termination Date; (iv) any indemnification obligations arising from third party claims asserted with respect to or arising from Tenant’s use and occupancy of the Premises prior to the Termination Date for which Tenant had a duty to indemnify Landlord pursuant to the Lease, and which expressly survive the expiration or termination of the Lease (but only to the extent that such claims are covered by Tenant’s insurance policies and on the condition that Landlord only seeks recovery from the insurer and only up to the insured amount); and (v) Landlord’s exercise of any discovery rights Landlord has against the Tenant in connection with any civil litigation or arbitration proceedings involving a third party.

5. Tenant Release of Landlord. name, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, claimed or unclaimed, whether based on contract, tort, breach of any duty, or other legal or equitable theory of recovery, each as though fully set forth herein at length, including, without limitation, any and all claims evidenced by the Lease, including the pursuit of any avoidance actions under Sections 544, 545, 547, 548, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code against the Landlord, solely relating to or arising out of the Lease, this Agreement or the Premises. Notwithstanding the above, Tenant, the bankruptcy estate, and anyone eligible to make a claim by or through the Tenant and bankruptcy estate, including the Committee, does not waive or release Landlord from the following: (i) any obligations arising under this Agreement; (ii) any indemnifications obligations arising from third party claims asserted with respect to or arising from Landlord's obligations prior to the Termination Date for which Landlord had a duty to indemnify Tenant pursuant to the Lease, and which expressly survive the expiration or termination of the Lease (but only to the extent that such claims are covered by Landlord's insurance policies and on the condition that Tenant only seeks recovery from the insurer and only up to the insured amount); and (iii) Tenant's exercise of any discovery rights Tenant has against the Landlord in connection with any civil litigation or arbitration proceedings involving a third party.

6. As further consideration for this Release, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree, represent and warrant that the matters released herein are not limited to matters that are known or disclosed, and the parties hereby waive any and all rights and benefits that they now have, or in the future may have, conferred upon it by virtue of the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California (or any other statute or common law principles of similar effect), which Section provides as follows:

7. In this connection, the parties hereby agree, represent and warrant that they realize and acknowledge that factual matters now unknown to them may have given or may hereafter give rise to causes of action, claims, demands, debts, controversies, damages, costs, losses, and expenses that are presently unknown, unanticipated, and unsuspected, and the parties further agree, represent and warrant that this Release has been negotiated and agreed upon in light of that realization and that, except as expressly limited above, it nevertheless hereby intends to release, discharge, and acquit the Released Parties from any such unknown causes of action, claims, demands, debts, controversies, damages, costs, losses, and expenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations of Tenant to defend, indemnify, and hold the Landlord harmless for claims or potential claims (including but not limited to: (i) any third-party claims for bodily injury, personal injury, or property damage relating to the Premises; and, (ii) claims asserted by contractors, subcontractors, materialmen, laborers or persons or entities entitled to assert mechanics' liens or similar claims for works of improvement at any of the Premises) shall survive termination of the Leases, and are not affected by the mutual release contained in this Agreement.
